

Sinclair
Broadcasting's
decision to force
their stations to
air an anti-Kerry
documentary days
before the election
is one more shameful
event in American elections. This would not be possible if stations
were owned in a less
conglomerate manner,
and if businesses
including media were serving public
interest instead of their own power and
profit.

This action by Sinclair deserves
clear and immediate
response by the FCC,
as well as long term
reform. Let it be known we the American people are
in shock and awe,
and angered by the
entire
anti-constitutional
climate of today's business and
governmental collusion. The strongest voice is not strong enough to reflect the depth of feeling we have
about what is happening to our country, and the
egregious absence of real media in American life.
Thank you.
